Giving When It Counts

Many years ago, when I worked as a volunteer at a hospital, I got to know a little girl named Liz, who was suffering from a rare and serious disease. Her only chance of recovery appeared to be a blood transfusion from her five-year old brother, who had survived the same disease and had developed the antibodies needed to combat the illness. The doctor explained the situation to her little brother, and asked the little boy if he would be willing to give his blood to his sister.

I saw him hesitate for only a moment before taking a deep breath and saying, "Yes, I'll do it if it will save her." As the transfusion progressed, he lay in bed next to his sister and smiled, as we all did, seeing the color returning to her cheek. Then his face grew pale and his smile faded. He looked up at the doctor and asked with a trembling voice, "Will I start to die right away?"

Being young, the little boy had misunderstood the doctor; he thought he was going to have to give his sister all of his blood in order to save her.

"Greater love hath no man than . . . a man lay down his life for his friends." John 15:13

In the midst of family chaos, quality time is rare. Do your best; let God do the rest—ASAP (Always Say A Prayer).

TODAY'S VERSE

No one has ever seen God; but if we love one another, God lives in us and his love is made complete in us. ~ 1 John 4:12

THOUGHTS ON TODAY'S VERSE

What an incredible thought! God can be seen in my home. The Father of the universe lives in my church. The Almighty God's love is recognizable in my life. How so? When I love those around me, when they love me back, when we choose to be loving instead of petty, unforgiving, critical, and harsh, God's presence, power, and perfection are revealed in us!

TODAY'S PRAYER

O Father, please make your presence, power, and perfection known through my love for your children and their love for each other. In the name of Jesus I pray. Amen.
