LOOKING UNTO JESUS

If you have ever watched a choral group or orchestra, you will note one thing each member always does – they look at the conductor from time to time. This is to insure that they are in harmony and performing in accordance with the conductor's directive.

As members of the church, we make up a group that is performing before God. And as such, we must look to Him and His word for proper guidance concerning practice and harmony. When we turn the whole focus of our attention to our Lord and acknowledge that He is in command, and perform in spirit and truth in accordance with His will, our lives will give forth a song that is beautiful music to His ears. Sadly, too many people (and churches) focus on the world and let worldly influences lead them. Doing so is a recipe for disharmony and disaster. Let us be reminded of the need to follow Christ and His will only in everything we do.

"If then you were raised with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ is, sitting at the right hand of God. Set your mind on things above, not on things on the earth" (Col. 3:1-2).

"...let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith..." (Heb. 12:1-2).

SUCH FAITH! (Matthew 8:5-13). A centurion—an officer who commanded 100 soldiers—asked Jesus to heal his servant. The centurion knew, from his own experience of giving commands, that Jesus only had to speak a word and the servant would be healed. Jesus “marveled, and said to those who followed...I have not found such great faith, not even in Israel!” Such great faith comes when we believe what do not see, when we trust Jesus to do what seems impossible. Such faith pleases Him.

GIVE YOUR TROUBLES TO GOD; HE WILL BE UP ALL NIGHT ANYWAY.

“He will not allow your foot to slip;
He who keeps you will not slumber.”
