CAN I BORROW YOUR ROPE?

A farmer came and asked his neighbor if he could borrow his rope. The neighbor said, "No, I can't let you borrow it."

"Why not," he replied.

"Because I'm using it to tie up my milk."

"But you can't tie up milk with a rope."

"I know, but when you don't want to do something, one excuse is as good as another."

As a preacher, I often hear excuses from people for why they don't want to do something, and very often they fall in the category of "tying up milk." I had a teacher in high school who really stressed to us that there is a big difference between an excuse and a reason. If you came into his class and said, "My excuse for being late is..." or "My excuse for not having my homework done is..." he would say, "I don't want an excuse, I want a reason!"

Have you been planning to get back in church, read your Bible more, or be baptized? Have you been planning to start coming on Sunday nights or Wednesday nights? Have you been planning to volunteer to teach a class, work with VBS or do something else you should do? Do you have a reason, or an excuse for not doing what you should do?

Jesus said, "If ye love me, keep my commandments" (John 14:15). He puts it pretty plainly doesn't He? There it is in black and white. You may make all the excuses you want to, but if you are not obeying the Lord, you don't love Him. Is it time to take some action?

"And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say? Whosoever cometh to me, and heareth my sayings, and doeth them, I will show you to whom he is like: He is like a man which built an house, and dug deep, and laid the foundation on a rock: and when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it: for it was founded upon a rock. But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that without a foundation built an house upon the earth; against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell; and the ruin of that house was great" (Luke 6:46-49).

TODAY'S VERSE

Seek good, not evil, that you may live. Then the Lord God Almighty will be with you, just as you say he is. Hate evil, love good; maintain justice in the courts. ~ Amos 5:14-15

THOUGHTS ON TODAY'S VERSE

A whole bunch of folks claim that God is on their side. In reality, the important question is whether we are on God's side! That's determined more by what we seek and do rather than what we think and say. God longs to be with us, but he will not sacrifice his character to extend us cheap grace, a grace that does not call us to be like him. He's looking for believers who put their character where their mouths are.
