HAVE YOU SEEN THE SEA?

Once upon a time there was a young fish that heard other fishes taking about the sea. One day he thought, "I will go and find the sea." He searched for a long time but could not find it. Then he met another fish, and asked, "can you tell me where I may find the sea?" And the fish said, "no, I have often wished to see it." The young fish met an old and wise fish, and asked, "Can you tell me where I may find the sea?" The old fish said, "Why, this is the sea, you are swimming in the sea, you have been in it the whole time."

How about you, do you know God? Like the fish, people are looking far away from the Bible. David is called "a man after God's own heart" (Acts 13:22). How did he get this title? From a youth, he knew that God was near him. Whether at home, in the fields as a shepherd, or seated on the throne as King of Israel; God was by his side. In one of the Psalms, he wrote: "If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea; Even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me" (Psalm 139:9-10). With this type of closeness, David could sing: "The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want" (Psalm 23:1). We need to learn to be like David and not like the fish who was looking for the sea. ~ Bulletin Digest

BROTHERS LEADERSHIP CLASS

TODAY'S VERSE

My dear brothers, take note of this: Everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak and slow to become angry. ~ James 1:19

THOUGHTS ON TODAY'S VERSE

Have a brake on your tongue; hit the throttle on your ears. Let your angry email sit three days before responding and make sure you read it and edit it before you send it. Keep you mouth shut and your ears open. They all say the same thing. Now if we would just do it, wouldn't the Christian community so much more blessed!

THOUGHTS ON TODAY'S VERSE

Mighty and Holy God, you are incredible — beyond my comprehending. How you put up with all the drivel, senseless and hurtful speech that I and your other children spew out is beyond my understanding. I ask that you release the Holy Spirit to convict my heart and guard my lips from any form of hurtful speech. I want my voice to be as much yours as my heart is. This I pray through Jesus. Amen.
