IF YOU'RE NOT SURE OF YOUR PART

How do you find your part?

I heard about a junior high music teacher who had just organized a band in her school. The principal was so proud of the music teacher's efforts, that without consulting her, he decided that the band should give a concert for the entire school. The music teacher wasn't so sure her young musicians were ready to give a concert, so she tried to talk the principal out of holding the concert, but to no avail.

Just before the concert was ready to begin, as the music teacher stood on the podium, she leaned forward and whispered to her nervous musicians, "If you're not sure of your part, just pretend to play."

And with that, she stepped back, lifted her baton, and with a great flourish brought it down. Lo and behold, nothing happened! The band brought forth a resounding silence.

I can't help but wonder if we have the same problem in church at times. Christians may have the idea that since they're unsure of the part that they are to play, they'll just sit and pretend. The problem is, when everyone is unsure of what part they're supposed to play, the result is silence — nothing gets done.

What is the solution? The solution is helping each and every member of the body of Christ to learn his or her part. In 1 Corinthians 12, Ephesians 4, and Romans 12, Paul pictures the church as a body with all of the different parts of that body having different functions.

"Having gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, let us use them ..." (Romans 12:6 RSV).

I can't do everything, or even most things, and I certainly can't do everything well. But, that's OK. The saxophonist in an orchestra isn't expected to know how to play the drums. His talent is playing the saxophone. His job is simply to make use of his talent and do the very best that he can.

Learn what your gift is, and then use it to the glory of God. Paul offers a list of possibilities. Maybe your gift is speaking, or serving, or encouraging, or giving, or leading, or showing mercy (Romans 12:6-8). Perhaps your gift is in that list, perhaps it's something else altogether — see also 1 Peter 4:10-11.

But, if you're not sure of your part, please don't sit and pretend to play. Find out what your gift is and then make use of it to the glory of God!

SPIRITUAL MATURITY

"WHEN I WAS A CHILD, I TALKED LIKE A CHILD, I THOUGHT LIKE A CHILD, I REASONED LIKE A CHILD..."
~ 1 CORINTHIANS 13:11

Some people's spiritual journey can be compared to a rocking horse: there is a lot of movement, but little progress. They never achieve spiritual maturity because they allow grudges to poison them with bitterness. Allowing a grudge to fester could harm your spirit and hinder your spiritual development.

Today you have an opportunity to grow by God's grace, to put the negative behind you, and to reach for a future of exuberant spiritual growth. If you open your heart to the Holy Spirit's influence, He will help you to forgive and forget—allowing spiritual maturity.

Lord, I cannot do anything without You. Fill me with Your Spirit so that I can grow and experience fulfillment in You. In Jesus name, Amen.
