OUTROOF

During Bible times, apartment-style homes were built atop city walls. Part of the roof of those buildings extended beyond the walls to protect them from rain and sun. The word for this overhang is translated "forbear" in English. It literally means to "outroof".

This is the way God commands us to love — to forbear one another in love, or to "outroof" one another. Protecting those you love with your love rather than expose them to the rough elements of our world.

Peter reminded his fellow brothers and sisters with these words, "Above all, love each other deeply, because love covers over a multitude of sins" (1 Peter 4:8).

Today, are you "outroofing" your family and friendships? Let's protect and provide the cover that will allow our friendships and family relationships to flourish and find shelter from the elements of our world. Let love "cover over" all.

TRUST IN GOD

"AS FOR ME, I WATCH IN HOPE FOR THE LORD, I WAIT
FOR GOD MY SAVIOR; MY GOD WILL HEAR ME.
~ MICAH 7:7

Some people look at the stars or consult fortune tellers in order to "see" their future.

However trustworthy these methods seem, they cannot help us handle the unknown. The only way in which we can be filled with confidence about the future is by believing in God.

When you are facing a problem and doubt tries to take hold of you, Jesus comes to you, saying, "Take courage! It is I. Don't be afraid" (Matt. 14:27). Christ Himself will bring you peace of mind.

Loving Savior, I place myself completely under Your control, for I know that You alone can guarantee me peace of mind. In Jesus name, Amen.
