HARD TIMES

Baseball!!! I love the game. I played baseball for much of my life. Starting at five years old and ending at 23, baseball was my life. Still today I cannot wait until the season starts. The first pitch, sunny weather, leather gloves, rain delays, strawberries, balls to the chin, being hit by a pitch, making contact, striking out, extending a single into a double, stealing bases, all are part of the game. You have both good and bad things that happen. You learn to take the good with the bad. Without the bad you would not learn the good.

I've often wondered what it must have been like for Peter the night of Christ's death. He had experienced much good throughout the time he spent with Jesus. He also experienced much that was bad. On one hand Peter saw Christ in all his glory during the transfiguration. On the other hand, he heard Christ tell him, "Get behind me Satan." He experienced the love of Christ as Jesus washed his disciples feet, but Peter went on to tell Christ not to! To which Christ said if he didn't wash Peter, then Peter would have no part with him in his kingdom. Finally the night of the trial of Jesus, he denied Christ three times just as Jesus said he would. However, Christ was far from being finished with him. After his resurrection, Jesus reinstated Peter with a question of love. Peter became a great witness in the kingdom of Christ. He became the Rock of the church.

How are you when things aren't going well? I can tell you from experience that I get down on myself easily. But Christ lifts me up like no one else. He is the way, the truth, and the life. He proved to me how much he loves me by the awful death on the cross. Furthermore, he proves his love for me by his actions toward Peter, the man who had denied him with cursing. He reinstated him and he told him in John 21:19, "Follow me."

If times are hard for you and you don't know what to do, just do what Jesus said and follow him. I can assure you that you will feel his love pour out upon you when you follow him.

SECRET SISTERS REVEAL (Final Gift)

His phone rang in church by accident during prayers.

The Pastor scolded him.

The worshippers admonished him after prayers for interrupting the silence.

His wife kept on lecturing him on his carelessness all the way home.

You could see the shame, embarrassment and humiliation on his face.

He never stepped foot in the church again.

That evening, he went to a bar.

He was still nervous and trembling.

He spilled his drink on the table by accident.

The waiter apologized and gave him a napkin to clean himself.

The janitor mopped the floor.

The female manager offered him a complimentary drink.

She also gave him a huge hug and a kiss while saying, "Don't worry man. Who doesn't make mistakes?"

He has never stopped going to that bar since then. ~ Selected

Lesson:

Sometimes our attitude as believers drives souls away from Church. Our attitude breaks our relationships, destroys our families.

You can make a difference by how you treat other people, especially when they make mistakes.
