Providing What We Cannot

A store manager overheard a clerk saying to a customer, "No, ma'am, we haven't had any for some weeks now, and it doesn't look as if we'll be getting any soon."

Alarmed, the manager rushed over to the customer who was walking out the door and said, "That isn't true, ma'am. Of course, we'll have some soon. In fact, we placed an order for it a couple of weeks ago."

Then the manager drew the clerk aside and growled, "Never, never, never say we don't have something. If we don't have it, say we ordered it and it's on its way. Now, what was it she wanted?"

"Rain."

As much as we'd like to think that we can provide everything that others might need, the truth is we cannot. There are some things only God can provide.

Maybe you've been in one of those situations lately. Perhaps you have a family member who has been going through a serious illness. Or maybe you have a child away at college who is experiencing some trials and is feeling very alone. Or maybe you have a friend who is going through some tough times in her marriage.

There are some small things you can do to help, but ultimately you feel helpless because you can't provide what they really need. And so you pray to God, because there are some things only God can provide. We sometimes make the mistake of thinking, "That's the least I can do." No, that's the most we can do. We have a God who can provide what we cannot. Keep that in mind today if you're feeling inadequate to meet the needs of everyone around you.

Now to Him who is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us... (Ephesians 3:20)

diligent

“Whatever it takes.”

Be diligent in these matters; give yourself wholly to them, so that everyone may see your progress. Watch your life and doctrine closely. Persevere in them, because if you do, you will save both yourself and your hearers.

I Timothy 4:15,16

NEW SUIT

You were taught, with regard to your former way of life, to put off your old self, which is being corrupted by its deceitful desires; to be made new in the attitude of your minds; and to put on the new self, created to be like God in true righteousness and holiness.

— EPHESIANS 4:22–24 NIV

We hope you will find our service to be Christ centered, uplifting, warm and loving, and that you will visit us again. If we can be of assistance to you or answer questions for you, please do not hesitate to ask or call on us. Join us as we seek to praise and worship God in spirit and truth.

FOCUS

When you focus on problems, you will have more problems.

When you focus on possibilities, you will have more opportunities.

“For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he.”
Proverbs 23:7
