YOU CAN'T HAVE A TESTIMONY WITHOUT A TEST

"I will...test them as gold is tested." Zec 13:9 NAS

If you're being tested today, you're in good company! Job, the most righteous man on earth, was tested beyond what most of us will ever have to endure. And when he emerged, he told God, "I heard about you from others; now I have seen you" (Job 42:5 CEV). In the heat of the furnace, you experience God up close and personal.

Sheila Schuller Coleman says, "Some tests are intended to assess what we've learned; others are intended to teach. We learn our most profound lessons when we're tested...Like what we're capable of...where we need to grow...and that there's still more to learn! When your faith is being tested, the last thing you're thinking about is learning a lesson...you just want to survive. But the lesson we learn from Job is that when we keep our faith in the most testing of times, we'll 'come out as gold' (Job 23:10 NAS).

Think about it: Did you ever hear a testimony that wasn't about someone surviving a test? James says, 'Consider it pure joy...whenever you face trials' (Jas 1:2 NIV). When we suffer, when people say hateful things, when we lose our homes, when we encounter rifts in our family, when the doctor calls with a dire diagnosis—the last thing we feel is joy...If anyone could speak with authority on praising God in trials, it was Paul. He was beaten, thrown into jail, and run out of town. How does your week compare to his?"

When you get through this test, you will have a testimony to God's strength and faithfulness, and be able to say, "The Lord is my God." ~ Selected

FORGIVE TO BE FREE

Be kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving each other, just as God in Christ also has forgiven you.
~ Ephesians 4:32

If you want to live your best life now, you must be quick to forgive. You need to forgive so you can be free, out of bondage, and happy. When we forgive, we're not doing it just for the other person, we're doing it for our own good. When we hold on to unforgiveness and live with grudges in our hearts, all we're doing is building walls of separation. We think we're protecting ourselves, but we're not. We are simply shutting other people out of our lives. We become isolated, alone, warped, and imprisoned by our own bitterness. Those walls don't merely keep people out; those walls keep you penned in.

Do you realize that those walls will also prevent God's blessings from pouring into your life? Those walls can stop the flow of God's favor and keep your prayers from being answered. They'll keep your dreams from coming to pass. You must tear down the walls. You must forgive the people who hurt you so you can get out of prison. You'll never be free until you do. Let go of those wrongs they've done to you. Get that bitterness out of your life. That's the only way you're going to truly be free.

You may experience genuine physical and emotional healing as you search your heart and are willing to forgive. You may see God's favor in a fresh, new way. You'll be amazed at what can happen when you release all that poison.

FORGIVENESS IS A CHOICE,
UT IT IS NOT AN OPTION.
