A MIND TO WORK

A preacher is driving down the road. He notices that he's low on gas so he stops at the gas station. While he's pumping his gas, he notices that he has locked his keys in the car. So when he goes inside to pay, he asks the attendant for a coat hanger so he can attempt to open the door himself.

He goes outside and begins to jimmy the lock. Ten minutes later, the attendant goes outside to see how the preacher is faring.

The preacher outside the car is moving the hanger around and around, while the preacher inside the car is saying, "A little more to the left... a little more to the right!!"

I've seen the same thing happen, and I suspect you have as well — in the workplace and at church. There always seems to be someone who sits back and says to everyone else, "Do it this way" or "Do it that way."

And you wonder, "Why doesn't he get up and lend a hand? The work would get done a lot faster if he would help out instead of just giving instructions!"

Encouraging others can be valuable, but there comes a time when we need to stop encouraging with words and start encouraging by rolling up our sleeves and joining in.

Nehemiah had the awesome task trying to rebuild the wall around Jerusalem. He faced many obstacles, but one of the keys to his success is found in Nehemiah 4:6: "So we built the wall, and the entire wall was joined together up to half its height, for the people had a mind to work."

The people had a mind to work! What a great spirit! Half of them stood guard while the other half worked in construction, but everyone pitched in.

May you be seen by those around you as one who truly has "a mind to work"!

SHELTER FROM THE STORM

"HE WHO DWELLS IN THE SHELTER OF THE MOST HIGH WILL REST IN THE SHADOW OF THE ALMIGHTY. I WILL SAY OF THE LORD, "HE IS MY REFUGE AND MY FORTRESS, MY GOD, IN WHOM I TRUST."

~ PSALM 91:1-2

Our lives can only be safe if we trust in the Most High. His protection is not limited to certain times of the day; rather we are under God's protection every moment of the night and day.

You need not fear anything—not the dangers of night or the attacks of day, not illness and plague nor war and fighting. God is with us everywhere. With His protection and presence you will be able to conquer all dangers.

Take shelter under God's wings and be assured that you have a safe refuge where true peace and safety can be found.

God of Ages, your children have always found shelter and protection in You. Thank you that I know where my safety lies. In Jesus name, Amen.
