TWO TO TANGO

Paul Pearsall in his well written book The Ten Laws of Lasting Love tells of the time in his life when he was struggling with cancer. He shares how he and his wife formed their own "couple caution Circle." Anytime a doctor comes with news of his progress, his wife would join him in a mutual embrace. The reports, he said, were seldom good during those early months of his illness. A turning point occurred in his life when one day, a doctor brought particularly frightening news. He writes, "Gazing at his clipboard, he murmured, 'it doesn't look like you are going to make it.'"

Before Paul could ask a question, his wife stood and handed him his robe, adjusted the tubes attached to his body and said, "Let's get out of here. This man is a risk to your health." As they approached the dumb struck doctor, she demanded "stay away from us" and together they tangoed amid tubes attached to his body all the way to the door and down the hall as the doctor attempted to catch up with them.

He writes, "The two of us moved as one. We fled the safety and hope of a doctor who did not confuse diagnosis with verdict. I could have never made the walk toward wellness alone." The wise king Solomon reminds us of the power of two supporting, working and helping another in this life. he writes, "Two are better than one because they have a good return on their labor. For if either of them falls, the one will lift up his companion. But woe to the one who falls and when there is not anyone to lift him up." (Ecclesiastes 4:9-10) Who can you reach out to today to lift their spirits? After all, isn't much fun to tango alone.

TRUST IN GOD

"THROUGH AN ARMY BESIEGE ME, MY HEART WILL NOT FEAR; THOUGH WAR BREAK OUT AGAINST ME, EVEN THEN WILL I BE CONFIDENT."

~ PSALM 27:3

Like never before, people are worried and anxious about what the future holds. It is essential for people to have a spiritual foundation upon which to base their hopes and expectations.

Unless you have a positive trust in a power greater than yourself, the future will be filled with uncertainty for you.

Faith in God must be intimate and personal if it is to give you hope for the future. The omnipotent Creator God has not abandoned this world despite appearances to the contrary. His master plan will still be carried out, just place your trust in Him and meet the future with the serenity He will give you.

Savior and Lord, I live from day to day trusting your very real presence and omnipotence in this world. I do not fear because you are my refuge. In Jesus name, Amen.

The Lord did not check who inside the house was worthy, HE checked for the BLOOD on the doorposts. None of us is worthy. Only the blood of Jesus can cover us.
