HONESTY

I know, my God, that you test the heart and are pleased with integrity. All these things have I given willingly and with honest intent. And now I have seen with joy how willingly your people who are here have given to you.
(1 Chronicles 29:17)

Bill Campbell, owner of Campbell's Restaurant Equipment & Supply in San Luis Obispo, California, was surprised to find a $10 bill in his mail one day. It was from a customer who had purchased a refrigerator from his company in 1963. The note attached to the bill said: "I was undercharged $10. When the salesman called to inform me, I refused to pay the $10. I have suffered with this all these years. So here's the $10. Thanks."

Campbell, whose father started the business in 1939, only vaguely remembers hearing about an irate customer who was undercharged and refused to pay. The details are fuzzy in his memory.

He said about the incident, "That was $10 we wrote off." He can't help but wonder, however, if the man may have received more than his money's worth out of the refrigerator. In fact, he suspects the refrigerator is still running.

To Campbell, the $10 is too valuable to put in the bank. It's more important to him as a conversation piece, framed and hanging on his wall. Campbell wishes, however, that the customer would have given his name or a return address. "He needs a word of thanks", says Campbell. "He did fess up to it."

Honesty is the cornerstone of all success, without which confidence and ability to perform shall cease to exist. God sets a high priority on honesty with His children. Our honesty with others goes a lot farther in life than a paltry sum of money.

Today, guard your honesty as your richest treasure.

HAVE YOU EVER THOUGHT OF IT?

In 100 years in 2123, we will all be buried with our relatives and friends. Strangers will live in our homes, which we fought so hard to build, and they will own everything we have today.

All our properties will be unknown, which have not yet been born...including that car you spent a fortune on, it will probably be scrapped, I guess it will be in the hands of an unknown collector. Our descendants will hardly know who we were, nor will they remember us. How many of us know our grandfather's father?

After our death, we will be remembered for a few years, then we will only be a portrait on someone's library and a few years later our history, our photos, our deeds go into the dustbin of oblivion. history... we won't even be memories.

Maybe if one day we stopped to analyze these questions, we would understand how ignorant and weak the dream of obtaining everything was...
 If only we could think, certainly our approaches, our thoughts would change, we would be other people...

Always having more and more, without having time for the things that are really worthwhile in this life...
 I'd change all that to live and enjoy those walks I've never taken...those ungiven hugs...those kisses to our children and our loves...those pranks we never had Did not have time.

Those would definitely be the best moments to remember. Basically, they would fill our lives with joy... And that is what we waste, with greed, greed, intolerance day after day!
 There is still time for us! Think about it!!!
