I SHALL NOT PASS THIS WAY AGAIN

A Quaker missionary by the name of Etienne de Grellet (Stephen Grellet), once wrote, "I shall pass this way but once; any good that I can do or any kindness I can show to any human being; let me do it now. Let me not defer nor neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again" (source).

Song writer Ronnie Gaylord obviously knew of the above quote and wrote the following lyrics to this song, sung by the late Glen Campbell:

*"I will pass this way but once
 If there's any good that I can do
 Let me do it now
 For I'll never pass this way again
 I will see this day but once
 If there's any kindness I can show
 Let me show it now
 For I'll never see this day again
 Tomorrow may be too late my friend
 To do all the good that you planned
 So reach out to those who need you
 And lend them a helping hand
 I will know this world but once
 If there's any love that I can give
 Let me give it now, oh Lord please show me how
 For I'll never know this world
 I'll never see this day
 I'll never pass this way again"* (source).

Beloved, today could be our last day on earth. "That clock's hands may soon be still." Therefore, as the above lyrics state: "If there's any good that I can do, let me do it now; if there's any kindness I can show, let me show it now; if there's any love that I can give, let me give it now, for I'll never know this world, I'll never see this day, I'll never pass this way again."

HAVE YOU EVER THOUGHT OF IT?

In 100 years in 2123, we will all be buried with our relatives and friends. Strangers will live in our homes, which we fought so hard to build, and they will own everything we have today.

All our properties will be unknown, which have not yet been born...including that car you spent a fortune on, it will probably be scrapped, I guess it will be in the hands of an unknown collector.

Our descendants will hardly know who we were, nor will they remember us. How many of us know our grandfather's father?

After our death, we will be remembered for a few years, then we will only be a portrait on someone's library and a few years later our history, our photos, our deeds go into the dustbin of oblivion. history... we won't even be memories.

Maybe if one day we stopped to analyze these questions, we would understand how ignorant and weak the dream of obtaining everything was... If only we could think, certainly our approaches, our thoughts would change, we would be other people...

Always having more and more, without having time for the things that are really worthwhile in this life... I'd change all that to live and enjoy those walks I've never taken...those ungiven hugs...those kisses to our children and our loves...those pranks we never had Did not have time.

Those would definitely be the best moments to remember. Basically, they would fill our lives with joy... And that is what we waste, with greed, greed, intolerance day after day!

There is still time for us! Think about it!!!

ON EAGLES' WINGS

"THOSE WHO HOPE IN THE LORD WILL RENEW THEIR STRENGTH. THEY WILL SOAR ON WINGS LIKE EAGLES." ~ ISAIAH 40:31

Too often we get hung up on things that don't really matter and we allow them to distort our view of life.

A positive Christian, however, has the ability to rise above small irritations by trusting in the Lord in all circumstances and by always remaining conscious of His presence. It is impossible to be trivial and small-minded when the love of Christ fills your heart and mind.

Spreading God's love by the power of the Holy Spirit means being able to rise above trivialities and reach the heights that the God of love desires from all His children. Then we can rise up on the wings of eagles and see things from their true perspective.

Holy Spirit, fill me with Your presence and help me to trust in God so I can rise above my problems. In Jesus name, Amen.
