I heard someone say a few days ago, "See, that just goes to show you that you can raise your kids in church all you want to, but....." and it literally shattered my heart. All because that kid had made a mistake. All because that kid's sin was brought to light.

Let me just tell you..... We don't raise our kids in church so they can grow up perfect. We don't raise our kids in church because it magically makes them unable to sin or holier-than-thou.

We do however raise our kids in church so WHEN they mess up and WHEN they fall short, they know just who to run to. So they know that their Lord and Savior will NEVER leave nor forsake them no matter how big or small their mess up might be.

So they know their Heavenly Father will always leave the 99 if they are that ONE that needs saving.

So they will know what grace is like and give it out freely.

So they will know the unconditional love of their Father and love those around them just the same regardless of anything else.

So they know that there is absolutely NOTHING in this world they could do that our Saviors blood hasn't already covered.

I will never apologize for raising my children in church. I will never apologize for making sure our family makes church a priority over anything else. Because it's more than just a song and a sermon. It's more than just a memorized Bible verse in Sunday School. It's for when this cruel world we live in comes knocking on their door, they personally know the solid rock on which they stand.

GRACE-RICH & FREE!

"The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all."

~ 2 THESSALONIANS 3:18

Where would we be if it were not for the grace of God? The wonderful song Amazing Grace tells of a prodigal son who came back to the father's house.

John Newton, the writer of the song, says that he was spiritually blind and lost, but the grace of God touched and healed him. This song reminds us of a redeeming God whose love is so great that He gave us His all through grace.

The Son of God took your guilt and my guilt upon Himself and sacrificed His life to redeem us from sin. His grace extends so far that even when we turn away from Him, Christ waits patiently and lovingly for us to turn back to Him.

Thank You, God, that Your grace has set me free and given me new hope for tomorrow. In Jesus name, Amen.
